EXPERIENCE

Brandi is a professional tax consultant and is a Tax Principal and International Services Practice Co-Leader with Windham Brannon LLC (WB). She specializes in the areas of international tax planning and compliance for businesses, individuals and estates. She has more than 15 years of public accounting experience, devoting her time to assisting clients on transactions throughout all aspects of their organization's and individual life cycle, including formation, structuring, acquisitions or dispositions for domestic parents with foreign subsidiaries or foreign parent companies with U.S. subsidiaries, compliance for individuals entering and exiting the U.S., compliance related to foreign partners invested in U.S. partnerships, consulting related to Foreign Investment in U.S. Real Estate (FIRPTA) and various other international tax planning assistance.

Brandi has an extensive global network of relationships with tax advisors in many different foreign jurisdictions. She serves on the board of Abacus Worldwide, an association of accounting firms and law firms around the world, and she is also a trusted member and international tax advisor within AGN International, a global network of accounting firms. Her commitment to serving others extends beyond her clients to her colleagues within the firm – Brandi leads the WB Tax CPE Team and has developed and assisted in the development of many tax training programs at WB. Beyond the firm, Brandi has served on her church's finance team for the past 15 years.

Brandi grew up in a West African/American home where she learned about the great culture and rich history of both sides of her families. She is also spiritually and financially active in her church, International Christian Fellowship. Brandi is married to Randolph Samuel, and she is a mom to two very active little boys, Ethan and Jacob.
