

MANAN M. BHARUCHA

EXPERIENCE

Manan has been with Windham Brannon for nearly 15 years. As a senior tax manager, he has extensive experience in providing tax planning and compliance for both businesses and individuals, with specialization in manufacturing and distribution, closely-held businesses, professional service organizations, real estate, and state and local taxation compliance and dispute resolution.

As many of his clients are pass-through entities, it creates a perfect mixture of working closely with the owners themselves and the direct tax impact their business will have on their individual taxes.
