

MARY BETH SAYLOR

EXPERIENCE

Mary Beth Saylor has almost 30 years of experience in income tax planning and compliance. This includes a specific focus on the planning needs of the construction and real estate industry clients and the high net worth individuals that own those businesses.

She provides tax preparation and planning for corporations, partnerships, and individuals, as well as succession and estate planning. She provides extensive planning and research on complex corporate and individual income tax issues and provides representation and assistance with federal and state income tax audits.

Mary Beth believes a close working relationship with her clients provides them with better business results.
