

REBEKAH JUDGE

EXPERIENCE

Rebekah started in public accounting when she joined Tarpley & Underwood in January 2008 and ultimately transitioned to Windham Brannon with the merger of the two firms in 2011. During her tenure, she has focused on the healthcare sector, working extensively with corporations and partnerships and their shareholders, partners, and employees within the field.

She assists her clients with compliance, structuring, ownership changes, and planning needs. In complement to her client service, Rebekah enjoys and is highly involved with internal firm development initiatives.
