

ANDREW JONES

EXPERIENCE

Andrew is a tax principal at Windham Brannon and has over seven years of experience in public accounting. He has experience serving clients in a variety of industries and focuses on clients in manufacturing and restaurants, assisting them with income tax minimization. He also specializes in State and Local Tax compliance for companies and individuals across all industries.

Prior to joining the firm in January 2015, he worked at a local law firm in Birmingham, Alabama while finishing graduate school at Samford University.

As an undergraduate, Andrew was a member of the university's baseball program and played two seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization.
