

ANDREA BLANCHARD

EXPERIENCE

Andrea Blanchard has more than 17 years' experience in public accounting and is a principal in Windham Brannon's tax division.

She specializes in multi-state corporate and flow-through entity taxation, along with the needs of individual investors within these entities. Her knowledge and client base spans a broad range of industries, including real estate, construction, professional services, and companies with ownership through Employee Stock Option Plans (ESOPs). She enjoys working with clients with complex income tax planning, structuring, and compliance needs.

Andrea is a dedicated member of the Real Estate and Construction practice within the firm. She is also actively involved in the training and development of our professionals, and in the firm's coaching and mentoring programs.

Originally from southeast Michigan, she now resides in Marietta, Georgia, with her husband and son.
