

GARY GRUNER

EXPERIENCE

Gary Gruner is a principal in Windham Brannon's tax practice. He specializes in individual income taxation, partnership accounting, S-corporations, and multi-state tax issues. He serves clients across diverse industries with a focus on real estate, construction, and hospitality. Gary speaks on tax issues and new legislation, and he sits on the Firm's Opportunity Zones and The Tax Cuts & Jobs Act committee.

Prior to joining Windham Brannon, Gary spent 14 years in private industry. His experience working with family-owned construction companies includes managing the development of several large multi-family projects.
