

KYLE PUTMAN

EXPERIENCE

Kyle is approaching 15 years of experience in public accounting and leads the firm's Technology Practice. Kyle has extensive experience working with technology and venture-backed companies, providing specialized assurance and advisory services to help them scale and succeed in a fast-evolving industry. His services focus on financial statement and employee benefit plan audits and compliance with complex accounting standards, including revenue recognition. Additionally, Kyle advises companies on strategic growth initiatives such as mergers and acquisitions, risk management and financial planning, helping technology businesses enhance operational efficiency and position themselves for long-term success.

Kyle is involved in firm leadership through Windham Brannon's Assurance Council and Process Committee and is also a dedicated member of Windham Brannon's mentoring and coaching program.
