

RICK MCCOY

EXPERIENCE

Rick brings more than a decade of experience in the CPA profession and lifelong passion for accounting. A graduate of Auburn University with honors in accounting, Rick has developed expertise in working with consolidated C- and Subchapter S-corporations, pass-through entities and high-net-worth individuals. Rick also has research, knowledge and preparation experience providing state and local tax (SALT) services in multiple states. In addition, Rick has experience in representing and advising clients involving IRS examinations and tax controversies.

Rick's leadership extends beyond technical expertise – he has a strong commitment to mentorship, helping to train interns and staff.

Outside of work, Rick enjoys spending time with his family, participating in golf tournaments and cruising the Caribbean.
