

TIM CLANCY

EXPERIENCE

Tim serves as the State and Local Tax Services Practice Leader for Windham Brannon. With more than 30 years of experience in the state income and franchise tax field, he has assisted clients in multiple industries, ranging from large public companies to smaller, closely-held operations. Tim has extensive experience in proactive state tax minimization services. His experience includes assisting taxpayers with not only the development and design of effective state tax planning but managing the implementation of the restructuring of the clients' operations.

He has also worked closely with clients providing consultative services that ensured the maintenance of the tax benefits derived. Tim also has significant experience managing state tax refund reviews; conducting due diligence reviews related to restructuring transactions, including acquisitions, divestitures and mergers; conducting nexus reviews; negotiating voluntary disclosure agreements to minimize liabilities and exposures; state income tax audits and outsourcing.

Tim's experience encompasses various organizational structures including C corporations, S corporations, limited liability companies and partnerships. He has provided services to a broad client base including taxpayers in the services, real estate, manufacturing, distribution, and retail industries.
